

HGSA

History Graduate Students Association

2010 CONFERENCE

Taliaferro Hall Friday, March 12

KEYNOTE SPEAKER:

Alison Games, Georgetown University

“America’s Global Origins”

Friday, March 12th

1:00-2:00 pm (Tydings 0130)

This event is funded in part by your Graduate Student Activities Fee and is open to all members of the University of Maryland community.

HGSA 2010 Conference Schedule Friday, March 12

8:30-10:15 Session One

PANEL A: WORTH A THOUSAND WORDS: AMERICAN PRINT CULTURE (TLF 2103)

Faculty Chair: Clare Lyons Commentator: Megan Coplen*

Matt Cheser, Maryland: “The Many Deaths of General Braddock: Remembering Braddock, Washington, and Fawcett at the Battle of the Monongahela, 1755-1855”

Kerry Cohen*, Alabama: “Imprinting Confederate Printers: The Creation of the Southern Publishing Industry during the Civil War”

Joey Romeo, Maryland: “No Shades of Grey: Civilization Discourse and Binary Identities in the Lynching Narrative”

* Note: Anna Doorenbos will present Kerry Cohen’s paper, and Josh Furman will read Megan Coplen’s comments for the panel.

10:15-10:30 Break

10:30-12:15 Session Two

PANEL B: PERCEPTION, POWER, AND PROPAGANDA: MEMORY AND INFLUENCE IN THE ANCIENT MEDITERRANEAN WORLD (TLF 2103)

Faculty Chair: Art Eckstein Commentator: Gus Grissom

William Burghart, Maryland: “When Gauls Attack: An Evaluation of the Gallic Kingdoms of Asia Minor”

Joseph Frechette, Maryland: “Thucydides and the Nature of Athenian Imperial Control: Popularity, Pericentrism, and Symbolic Power”

Nikolaus Leo Overtoom, Maryland: “Living in the Shadow of Alexander the Great: Livy’s Alexander Digression”

12:15-1:00 Lunch (TLF 2100)

1:00-2:00 KEYNOTE SPEAKER (TYDINGS 0130)

2:00-2:15 Break

2:15-4:00 Session Three

PANEL C: WHERE THE MONEY’S AT: ECONOMICS IN 20TH CENTURY AMERICA (TLF 2103)

Faculty Chair: David Sicilia Commentator: Robert Henderson

Jon Franklin, Maryland: “The Progressive Vanguard: Economists and Federal Economic Policymaking, 1921-1938”

Paul Gibson, Maryland: “One Bank to Rule Them All: American Opposition to Bretton Woods, 1943-1968”

Karen Hawkins, UNC-Greensboro: “Coastal Progress: Eastern North Carolina’s War on Poverty, 1963-1978”